DAY 2: GRAND PALACE & CALYPSO CABARET SHOWS & DINNER

Today is a day of amazement at what is undoubtedly one of Bangkok's - and Thailand's - most famous landmarks, the Royal Grand Palace. From there, we enjoy a tour of the magnificent palace grounds and its expansive complex, home to Thai kings until the turn of the 20th century.

Still a seat of power and the spiritual heart of the Thai kingdom, the palace contains throne halls, two of which are open to the public, symbolizing the complex's great historical and cultural significance.

Here, we explore Wat Phra Kaew - Temple of the Emerald Buddha - which houses the small yet greatly revered Emerald Buddha, dating back to the 14th Century. Around the palace grounds, we witness six-meter-tall statues of colorful demons from the Ramayana, who watch over the Emerald Buddha from every gate to ward off evil spirits.

Finally, we take some time to check out the vibrant, colorful murals of the Ramayana, which depict the ancient story of the triumph of good over evil, before being transferred back to your hotel.

DAY 3: DAMNOEN SADUAK FLOATING MARKET & RIVER KWAI

We will start this busy day with an early morning departure with your guide, heading for the province of Ratchaburi, around 100 kilometers southwest of Bangkok. This quaint old province is home to one of the most famous floating markets in the country, Damnoen Saduak, and there's ample time to explore the network of canals via traditional longtail boats.

You can also walk around, taking in the vibrant sights, sounds, and smells, as well as bargaining for some souvenirs or indulging in some local delicacies.

After your shopping and culture fix, we say goodbye to Ratchaburi and head north on the road to Kanchanaburi, home to the world-famous 'Bridge over the River Kwai' that was built during the Second World War. Take your time to explore this iconic structure, together with the nearby war museum, which gives an excellent insight into the horrors that unfolded during the bridge's construction.

The tracks are still in use today, board the train at Nam Tok Station and ride along the notorious 'death railway' yourself, passing through the jungles and along a heart-stopping cliff overlooking the river.

Afterward, there's time to visit the poignant War Cemetery, containing the remains of 6,982 allied prisoners of the war, most of whom lost their lives during the construction of the bridge and rail route stretching to Burma.
