After breakfast at the hotel, our guide and driver will pick you up and transfer you to visit the most remarkable Buddhist temples in Bangkok.

- The first stop is Wat Traimit, having the Golden Buddha Temple that weighs several tons with special architecture.
- Then you will visit a sacred site in the Kingdom The Grand Palace. This is one of the most beautiful examples of an ancient Thai court, with several Halls in the same compound.
- The next destination is Wat Pho, the Temple of Reclining Buddha, where the blind may be trained to become masseuses. If the time is possible, you can explore the Temple of Emerald Buddha, which is placed nearby.

Then you will enjoy the lunch at a local restaurant.

Afternoon

Let's continue your afternoon exploration by visiting the Chao Phraya River's edge, to board a local style "Long Tail Boat", and spend a few hours to enjoy the old canals of the Thonburi side of Bangkok.

You will have opportunities to snack and purchase knick-knacks. Visit the Temple of Dawn from Wat Arun, which you will probably recognize from its famous silhouette.

Then transfer back to your hotel.

Evening

After relaxing, you will join the street food tour in the evening.

- From the meeting point of the Hua Lamphong MRT, a short walk brings us to the first destination which has fish balls in pink noodle soup.
- The second food that you will try is Dim Sum, followed by the Michelin Star Chinese fried dough.
- Seafood and pig's organ or crispy pork (your choice) in peppery soup are the next dishes.
- Then the food tour will come to an end with the desserts including ice cream and sesame dumplings in sweet ginger tea.
- Our tour guide then brings you back to Hua Lamphong MRT, or call a taxi or a TukTuk to take you to the hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel in Bangkok

DAY 3: CUSTOMIZED AUTHAYA DISCOVERY

Morning

From 08:00 to 8:30, our tour guide and driver will pick you up at the hotel. We will start this trip by visiting the Summer Palace, the Royal Palace at Bang Pa In. Now the Palace is used occasionally by their Majesties King Rama IX and Queen Sirikit as residences and for receptions and banquets.

At 10:30, we get in a private car to reach the Ayutthaya Ancient Capital.

Then you will have lunch at a local restaurant at 11:30.

Afternoon

Spend time to explore the top attractions at Ayutthaya:

- Wat Mahathat: The heart and soul of the Ayutthaya people, which is over 600 years old. This place is famous for the Buddha's face wrapped in tree roots with a peaceful spirit.
- Wat Mongkhon Bophit: Its major attraction is the enormous bronze (gilded) Buddha image, which stands approximately to 17 meters tall (when the base is included).
- Wat Phra Sri Sanphet: This is where the ashes of three Ayutthaya rulers (Ramathibodi II kings, Borom Trailokkanat, and Borom Rachathirat III) are kept.
- Wat Lokiyasutharam: This site has a mysterious past with an enormous reclining Buddha image constructed in the style of the Early Ayutthaya Period.

15:30 Return to Bangkok.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hotel in Bangkok
